WHITE

CAPS

1946

We, the class of 1946, dedicate our Yearbook to Miss Grace Thompson
with deep appreciation for all that she has done for us and the school of nursing.

EDITORIAL:

Three years we've spent
Here at Vassar
A long time, you say
Three years

It really isn't so long, when you stop to consider every thing we've had the opportunity to learn from our books and in human kindness. Just think of the opportunities given us to help our fellow men to repair both broken bodies and spirits. Whether or not you took full advantage of these opportunities is up to your own conscience to answer.—If you have, then this day of Graduation need be but a stepping stone to wider fields in which to work. If you haven't, this day should be the beginning of a new life and the fulfillment of life's purpose, to be happy. There is no greater happiness than in helping your fellow men.

We should be grateful and humble on this day, because so many pathways to happiness are open to us, if we desire to use them. In these next years we shall be able to play a large part in the rebuilding of a broken world; broken in body and spirit.

Are you ready to accept this responsibility?

I. E.

CLASS SONG

TUNE: "There's a Long Long Trail"

There's a long long path before us
Until we find our star
And we'll often look behind us—and think of those afar—
We will always remember
The strife of our student days
And thank V.B.H. for the help that it gave
We can never forget the loyal friends that we've made
And the times we've spent together as we toiled and played
As we leave here with sadness
Our hearts are happy to know
That V.B.H. has helped us to attain our goal.

And their resolute rescue of Man.
Oh, I warble a hey diddle-diddle
In honest and garrulous praise
For the beds that rise up in the middle
And the girls that come down with the trays!

"WE—THE CLASS OF '47"

Remember:

Filing our applications—long hours of hard labor—(why didn't someone tell us these things.)

Interviews and meeting Miss Sweet—(what if she asks to see our flat feet?)

Admission promptly at 3 p. m. on February 1, 1944 and September 5, 1944—(The three R's—rules, rooms, and room-mates.)

Initiation—a too well remembered Friday night—(oh! what we went through!)

Adjustment—classes, hours, blue smocks, then duty—up at 6 a. m.—hairnets, a smile—(Oh! to be sleeping now!)

Advanced to stripes and aprons plus stunning uniforms of the Cadet Corps for dress appearance—(are we proud!)

Capping with reverence, pride, and tears—(no longer a pre-clinical—now we look like a nurse anyway!)

Night duty—wish there were someone to talk to—7 a. m.—(Ah! Happy day!)

Vacations—well earned—(well appreciated!)

On Our Way—

Diet Kitchen—(D.K. equivalent to K.P.)

Operating Room—(people are funny—inside and out!)

Accident Room—(a warning)

Obstetrics delivery room—(It's a boy!)

Off We Go—

Affiliations at Babies' Hospital in New York.

Child Study at Vassar College—(new friends and new experiences!)

Looking Forward To—

Hudson River State Hospital—(will we return?)

Blue Stripes on our caps—(seniors at last!)

Uniforms of all white with that black band on the cap—
(I made it! Now to worry about housing problems, laundry, food, more money, more expenses—you can't win!)

CLASS OF 1948

Here's to the class of '48!

Who works with a spirit ever so great!

We all are striving to do our best

To help the patients get well, by rest.

Now relief and night duty are in our pathway

While others are seen in the O.R. and D.K.

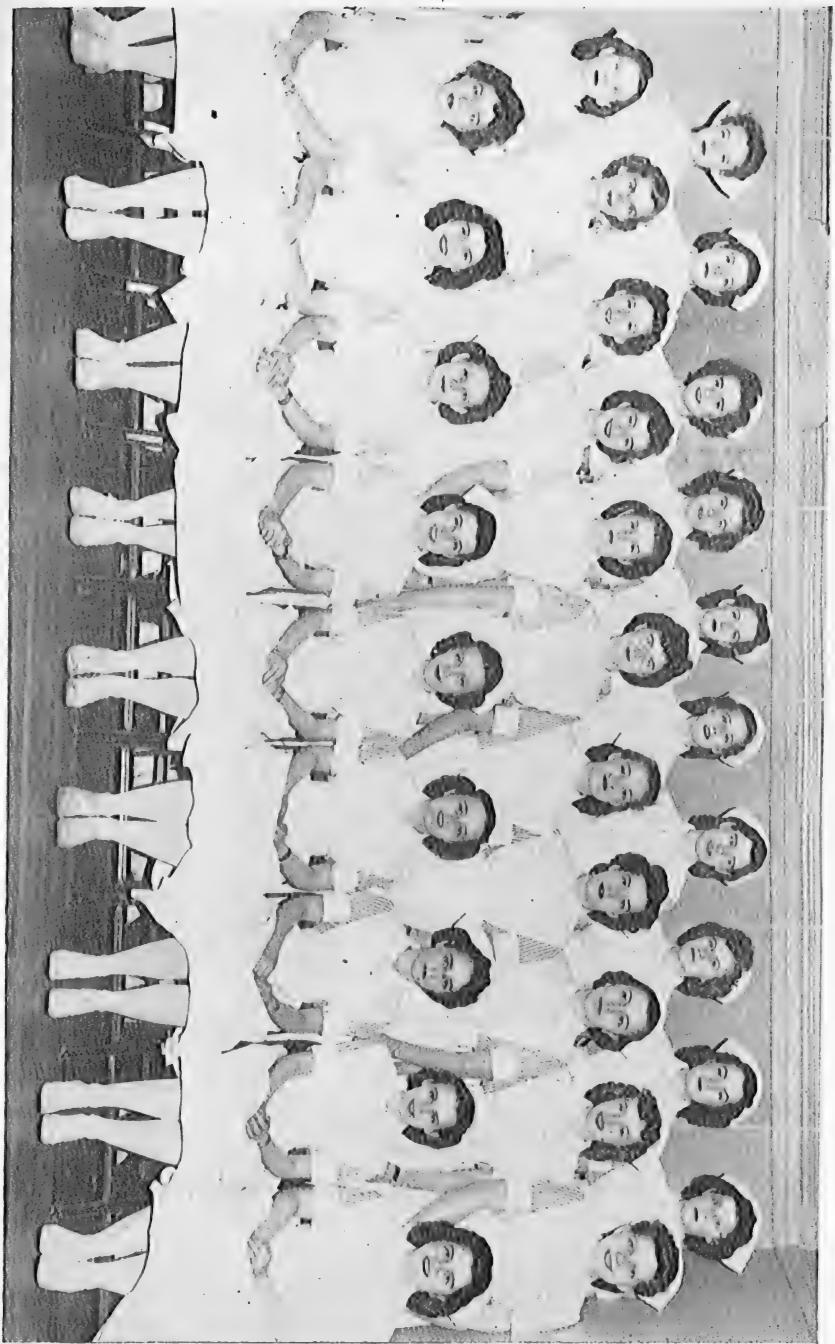

Before very long Seniors we'll be,

And you can be sure it will fill us with glee.

We'll carry on with this thought in sight,

"To always be cheerful, to do our work right."

CLASS OF '49

We came
 All seven of us
 V.B.H. conquered
 Meek mites are we
 Blue smocks—sacks
 They don't help
 Pre-clinical uniforms
 Much better
 Classes
 Dozens of them
 Bedpans and dirty work
 Sleep—any place, any time
 Capping in June
 Years pass on
 Will we ever finish
 ? ? ? ?
 More studies
 There must be an end
 Can't find it
 Blue stripes
 Seniors—big-wigs now
 Finally our whites (we can dream can't we??)

STUDENT COUNCIL

Since our days as young students, much of our interest has been centered in the formation of some form of student government. Now as we leave V.B.H., we leave behind us a well organized Student Government Association; and we, the Class of '46, are proud of the part we have played in this thriving organization.

The association itself consists of the entire student body, while the council is made up of the officers, the president and a representative of each class, three faculty members, and the Director of Nursing.

Much progress has been made since the first meeting in October, 1945. All students have been placed on an honor system, and misdemeanors have been brought before the council's tribunal for judgment.

The organization aims to promote fellowship and to maintain the highest ideals in the nursing profession, to encourage cooperation of students and alumnae with each other and with the school, to aid in self discipline and to advance the interests of Vassar Brothers' Hospital.

Extra curricular activities play an important part in the program.

We have been proud to note the success of the organization and we hope it continues to grow in strength and usefulness.

GLEE CLUB

This year we became acquainted with our new director, Mr. Terry, who succeeds our former director, Mr. Karl Roider, who has left Poughkeepsie. We are pleased with Mr. Terry's direction and his introduction of new songs, "Pale Moon," "The Bells of St. Mary," "The Rosary," and "Liebestraum." We still have Mrs. Donald C. Tongue as piano accompanist. At one time she was a patient in Vassar Hospital with a sprained ankle, and attended our meeting in a wheel chair. Her willingness to come was exceeded only by our determination to provide transportation to Tower Home where our rehearsals are held.

Our Glee Club meets on an average of every two weeks from November through May. We often have occasion to sing in public.

Our Glee Club is sponsored by the Vassar Brothers' Hospital Auxiliary, whose chairman, Mrs. Cook, attends many of our meetings and is our indulgent critic.

Class Will

We've sat and pondered
As to what to leave behind
And these—the following—
Wandered through our minds—
Now these are friendly suggestions
That you'll do well to read
'Cause this—our last will and testament
Tells just what you need.
And so, on this bonny morning
The 22nd of May 1946
Being of sound mind and body
Our Honored seal we do affix.

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE . . . WHAT DO WE SEE?

The babies are all crying with glee
'cause Thomassen's back in the nursery!

That haunting laugh is no more—
For Ladzinski's supervisor of Wd. 4

Woodin is no longer a "sunny" riser
She's our new night supervisor.

If you hear a car horn in front of your door
It's P.H. nurses Clark and Drake visiting once more.

For Avery there will always be
A future life with psychology(?)

Bradford is so happy and gay—
Her voice range got her in the O.R. today!

What's the aroma from the H.R.S.H. D.K.?
They're enjoying the food of J.K. Day!

ZOOM!! Goes an airplane through the sky—
Air hostesses Kelly and Dunghi are riding high!

Dederer's hep with the hottest swing
Her record shop is really quite the thing!

DeLamater's really on the ball
Wheeling OB's down the hall.

Eramo's the champion every year
As a tennis opponent all her do fear!

Have you read the recipe book
Written by Eischen the nationwide cook?

Luty and duty go hand in hand
Helping the lovelorn throughout the land.

Puff has brains which she uses
Living her life as she chooses.

As a PD nurse she does real well
And she is in demand—that's Pendell!

Knapp has done as she had planned
Marrying George and buying land.

Myers is leading a happy life
Being a domestic housewife.

Bryant has finished her recent book
On how to give patients that cheerful look!

As for Zak we can say "we knew her when",
For she's a famous instructor in the state of Penn.

Travis and Riley are still together.
To teach the arts of nursing is their endeavor.

Diapering babies and learning to coo
Is Westover at Babies the whole day through.

Ross now a dramatist on the stage
Portraying Juliet in a gown of beige.

Spreeman really hasn't changed at all
Serving humanity and answering its call.

For Smith there will always be Strains of music and the inevitable "he".

Williams is a part time office nurse
But Sparky to her will always come first.

Nagle and Chet have the cutest home
And neither of them will ever roam!

And that, my friends, is our prophecy—
Will it come true? Well—wait and see!

HOW CAN WE FORGET?

Drake's method for digitalizing patients.
Dederer's thinking there was milk in Milk of Magnesia?
Kelly and her date mix-ups.
Our first night duty.
The fun we had on the hayride.
Nagle's whistle.
The snowflakes at the Senior Dance.
Coffee time in Tower Home.
Thomassen's gentle burps.
Bradford's soothing voice.
De Lamater's enthusiasm.
Frank Valentine's cheerful and friendly nature.
Mrs. Brady's familiar remark—"How many empty beds have you?"
Mr. Patterson's patience and assistance with our searching for drugs.
The back dayroom in Ryon Hall, the patients, and their cigarettes.
Day's alarm clock.
Spreeman's radio and her goodies from home.
Sun baths in back of Tower Home.
Our arrival at V.B.H.
The twinkle in Dr. Sucre's eyes.
Dr. Lewis' boogie-woogie.
Dr. Lorusso's concerts in Tower home for our waiting dates.
Dr. Arthur Smith's genuine good looks—taken over by Dr. Akey.
Ward 3's fracture cases.
Drake's modesty when Dr. Thomson found his O.R. suit a little insecure.
Ladzinski's rescue work when Wd. 6's refrigerator leaked.
Miss Dunwoody's Christmas spirit.
Dr. Gagan's land marks.
Our time off at H.R.S.H.
Eischen's notes by the telephone.
Dunghi's interview for the Poughkeepsie New Yorker.
Bradford's putting all she had into her work at H.R.S.H.—including her teeth.

"DEEP ARE THE ROOTS"

Eischen's tool chest.
When Luty thought red cell paste was jelly and ate it on toast.
When Ross "helped" Dr. Meyer move fast with her scissors.
When Eischen wrote the essay for the O.R.
When Nagle searched the incinerator for a specimen.
When Woodin stabbed Dr. Kapowski.
Smith—the only one who could possibly fall asleep in CIV Nursery.
Trying to sleep while on Night Duty.
Making a mad dash for the elevator for the Delivery Room.
The thrill of getting our blue bands.
Miss Lindberg's guiding hands during those first critical months.
Moving from Home to Home in all kinds of weather.
Shoveling snow out of Home 11 bedroom at 3 A. M.—ask Kelly,
Neilson and Nagle.
Those Sunday afternoon walks to Lover's Leap.
When Avery lost her rubbers at H.R.S.H.
Pizza and coffee at Carl's.
Those anniversary parties every Sept. 7.
Those jive sessions in Home 11 in those eccentric costumes.
Case Studies.
Ulery's home barber shoppe.
When Nagle started knitting Cher's sweater way back in '44—
(she finally finished it).
The varied pictures on the walls of our rooms.
When Zak lost her tooth giving the night report.
When Riley fractured her toe.
The New Year's Eve Luty almost drowned.
The first and last mattress Del ever flipped.
Barties famous dances.
Spaghetti dinners—Luty's wine.
Air raid drills and the scramble to get some clothes on. Especially girdles. How about that Riley?
The night at Ernie's with Miss Bostion.
When Myers knocked over the Christmas tree.
The night Poofie discovered a new use for a lace hankie.
Julie gave Luty Spanish lessons in a phone booth to promote the good-neighbor policy.
The night Travis spent under the table.
Face basin time in back of Wd. 1 one early A.M.
The beautiful view of the Hudson from Tower Home.

He promised to be faithful—He promised to be true,
He promised to be steadfast, and always loving too.
The fly within this ointment is very plain to see—
He kept his every promise,
But who said he promised me!
